Work Area Status Report: 19th March 2015	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The 1.5.0 is so very close to release. Approximately 39 proposed editorial changes to review; that should be done this week.2. Collaboration with eduPerson - Started the interview process with key players in the eduPerson space to see what they think might be possible/reasonable in terms of collaborating with SCHAC. I've spoken with Keith Hazelton already, and will be talking with Ken, Rhys, and Leif in the next week. I'm also intending to reach out to Mikael and Niels for their thoughts. When I have the initial report drafted, I'll reach out to the SCHAC editorial board as well as MACE-Dir (through Keith) to see how this matches their thoughts on the matter.3. SCHAC SAML profile - On the editorial board mailing list, Peter suggested that this is actually not necessary any longer. I intend to talk to a few more people, reaching out to the individuals on the editorial board, to see what they think about it.
