

Hotels in Amsterdam

We sometimes get asked about good places to stay in Amsterdam. The following is a list of some recommendations - some of these are at the expensive end and are more recommended for fabulous weekends than work trips. You can also get great apartments via Housetrip, booking.com and AirBnB. If you book hotels a lot I recommend using hotels.com as you get a free night for every 10 nights booked.

Hotel	Description	Website
Volkshotel	Price can vary drastically but a nice place to stay. Has a cool rooftop bar.	http://www.volkshotel.nl/en/
Motel One	Quite far out but this means you can often get it for a good price when everything else is full.	http://www.motel-one.com/en/hotels/amsterdam/
ClinkNoord	A hostel but you can book a private room. Very basic but the social areas are nice and you get to ride the ferry.	http://www.clinkhostels.com/amsterdam/clinknoord
The Toren	Bonkers but fun. On the expensive side so recommended if you are looking for a romantic getaway rather than a work trip.	http://www.thetoren.nl/en/
Qbic	A bit like a Yotel and 15 minute tram ride from the office. Functional and very cheap for Amsterdam though.	http://www.qbichotels.com/
Chic and Basic	Does what it says on the tin. Good value but nearly always full.	http://www.chicandbasic.com/hotel-amsterdam .
Conscious Hotels	Billed as being green but can also be cheap with good deals. New location recently opened called the Tire Station.	http://www.conscioushotels.com/reservations
Hotel V	Two locations. Design sort of modern gentleman's club. Used to be reasonable but has gone up in price significantly. Frederiksplein location is cheaper.	http://www.hotelv.nl/
Hotel Vondel	Boutique style hotel near Leidseplein so really easy for the office. Well decorated rooms, can be cheap.	https://www.hotelvondel.com/
